

Lecture Series: Northeastern Wisconsin Audubon Society announces...

Tracking the Phantoms!

-by-

John Jacobs

Learn about an exciting telemetry project led by John and Eugene Jacobs who are tracking Red-shouldered Hawks on their nesting ranges during spring and summer, their migration route south in the fall, their wintering sites, and their migration back north in spring!

Thursday, October 22nd at 7:00 pm

Free Virtual Presentation through Zoom!

You must pre-register to obtain Zoom details.

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting by computer or phone.